Kennedy Proposes Two Coordinating Groups

Cal Poly President Robert E. Kennedy has sent a letter to San Luis Obispo Mayor Kenneth Schwatz and the members of the San Luis Obispo City Council proposing the formation of two new groups to study common university-city-county problems. The Council on Wednesday (Feb. 16) received the proposals from Dr. Kennedy and accepted them for further study.

In his letter to the Council, Dr. Kennedy reiterates the problems inherent in the establishment of a traditional "community advisory board" at Cal Poly. The two Cal Poly campuses are specifically exempt from state Education Code provisions which require the other 17 CSUC campuses to have such boards. This is based on the statewide service nature of the two Cal Poly universities. President Kennedy pointed out that were Cal Poly required to establish a community advisory board, the area covered by this board would extend from Soledad in the north, to Carpinteria in the south, and as far east as New Cuyama (the present university Extension Service Area).

Repeating his commitment to cooperation with both the city and the county of San Luis Obispo in mutual solution of problems, Dr. Kennedy has proposed two groups to the City Council in his letter. He also sent a copy of the proposal to County Supervisor Kurt Kupper who, in the past, had also indicated interest in the formation of a joint advisory group. Kennedy's two proposals include both a "Tripartite Liaison Panel" and a "City-County-University Staff Planning and Coordinating Council."

The first proposal, the Tripartite Liaison Panel, would consist of nine persons, three from each segment: university, county, and city. This group "might propose actions to be undertaken by one, two, or all three of the agencies," Kennedy wrote. He also proposed that the nine members of the panel not be elected officials of the city or county, but might be appointed by these bodies.

The second proposal, the City-County-University Staff Planning and Coordinating Council, would also be made up of nine members, three selected staff persons from each of the segments. According to Kennedy, it "would be a working level liaison group which could deal with realities of coordinated planning." This group would formalize and expand upon existing staff level cooperation between E. Douglas Gerard (Executive Dean) and Rob Strong, planning director for the City of San Luis Obispo.

In his letter, President Kennedy looked forward to the establishment of one or both of these groups and reiterated his commitment to continued cooperation between Cal Poly, the county, the cities, and the people. His proposals received a favorable consensus from the mayor and three councilmen attending the Wednesday session.
ENGINEERING WEEK EVENTS SCHEDULED

"A Key to the Future" will be the theme of the 1977 Engineering Week observance at Cal Poly. Planned by the student council of the School of Engineering and Technology to coincide with National Engineers Week, the campus program will begin on Sunday (Feb. 20) and continue through Saturday (Feb. 26). Featured during the week will be a banquet on Friday (Feb. 25) during which outstanding engineering students will be honored. Guest speaker for the banquet, which is planned for 7:30 pm in the Staff Dining Room will be John Bardget of Exxon Corp.

Another highlight of the week will be the catapult contest at 11 am on Thursday (Feb. 24) in the University Union plaza. Prizes will be awarded for the student-built catapults that can toss water balloons across the plaza with the greatest accuracy. Other events scheduled during the week include a series of speakers and displays on engineering subjects from 10 am to 3 pm on Wednesday (Feb. 23) in Chumash Auditorium and a brown bag picnic for engineering students and faculty at noon on Tuesday (Feb. 22) in Poly Grove.

CITY CANDIDATES FORUM PLANNED

Eleven of the candidates whose names will appear on the San Luis Obispo city election ballot on Tuesday (Mar. 8) have accepted invitations to take part in a public forum and debate at 11 am on Tuesday, (Feb. 22) in the University Union Plaza. Ole Meland, president of the Associated Students, Inc., which is sponsoring the forum, said it will be the first and perhaps the only, such event at which a majority of the candidates in the city election will appear. "There may be other such programs scheduled as the election draws near, but our forum on Feb. 22 is the only one we know about at this time," Meland added.

City Council candidates scheduled to appear at Cal Poly include Ron Dunin, Don Fischer, Liz Fisher, Jeff Jorgensen, Ed Martin, Clarence "Mac" McCullar, Linnaea Phillips, and LaVerne Schneider. Candidates Melanie Billig and Foster Gruber have declined to appear at the campus event for personal reasons. Mayoral candidates who have accepted invitations to participate in the program at Cal Poly are T. Keith Gurnee, incumbent Ken Schwartz, and Maria Swanson. Although the campus forum is intended to let the candidates present their views to the students, other interested persons are invited to attend.

Monday (Feb. 28) is the deadline for receipt of entries for a photo contest for Cal Poly students, faculty, and staff, which is being sponsored by the Student Community Services (SCS) organization. Black and white or color photos ranging up to 16 by 20 inches in size must be received by 5 pm on that date in the SCS Office, University Union 103. Tom Judd, coordinator for the contest, said entries will be judged on how well they portray the contest theme, "This Is Your Community," as well as on their communicative quality, artistic expression, and technical excellence.

Judges for the competition, which will feature over $100 in prizes and camera equipment, will be San Luis Obispo Mayor Kenneth Schwartz, professional photographer Shelby Stover, and Student Activities Information Director Doug Jones. Judd said the contest theme is broad enough to allow wide latitude in expression and perception of the feeling of environment. For further information about the competition, contact Judd at the SCS Office, UU 103, Ext. 1393.
"BORN YESTERDAY" COMING SOON

"Born Yesterday," the comedy by Garson Kanin that will be presented on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday (Feb. 24, 25, and 26) is a play that wraps all the political and financial wheeling and dealing of Washington, DC, into a most enjoyable package. It is also a play that has attracted many of the top names in the world of acting for its performances before packed houses on Broadway and in over 17 foreign countries.

"Born Yesterday" tells the story of a chorus girl caught up in the tough and rough whirl of Washington politics and finance in the 1940's. Billie Dawn is "attached" to Harry Brock, a rough but rich junk dealer who has decided that his future is tied up in the deals he can make with the political wheels. He brings Billie along with him, almost as a piece of baggage. Bored by the Washington scene, Billie discovers, with the help of an enterprising newspaper reporter, that there can be fun in "culture." In a Pygmalion-like transformation, the new Billie Dawn emerges, with the courage to match her ideals against those of her benefactor. The showdown, and the eventual winner, are elements which make the play a classic stage comedy.

"Born Yesterday" started its nearly four-year run on Broadway in February, 1946 with Paul Douglas as Harry Brock, Gary Merrill as the reporter, and Judy Holliday as Billie Dawn. When the play closed in December, 1949, it had logged 1,642 performances to become the fifth longest running non-musical in American stage history. The play helped turn the leading players into stars. Douglas and Merrill went on to Hollywood and became prominent in the film industry after their performances in "Born Yesterday." Miss Holliday had been the understudy to Jean Arthur until the original star became ill during the play's pre-Broadway tryout and was replaced. Miss Holliday also went on to star in many movies.

Besides being a Broadway success, the comedy has been well received on tour. "Born Yesterday" has been produced in theatres across the United States by four touring companies, including one headed by Jean Parker and Lon Chaney, Jr. The play has been presented on five continents in such countries as Poland, France, Holland, Scotland, Sweden, Australia, Israel, Mexico, Italy, Greece, and Turkey. Columbia Pictures bought the film rights to the comedy for $1,000,000. Originally, Columbia wanted to cast Rita Hayworth in the role of Billie Dawn, but it was decided that the play's star, Judy Holliday, would play the movie role. In the movie version with Miss Holliday were Broderick Crawford as Brock and William Holden as the reporter.

Tickets for the 8 pm performances in the Cal Poly Theatre are on sale at the University Union ticket office. Priced at $2 for general admission and $1 for students, they will also be available at the door before each performance.

A FESTIVAL FOR WELLNESS

The Student Health Center is promoting health by sponsoring a festival for wellness. The project is one of several designed to encourage people to maintain personal health. The entire Health Center staff will make the festival not only educational, but interesting and fun. People will be able to participate in a number of activities, including physical performance testing, cardiopulmonary resuscitation, and others. Displays will be present on many health related issues, such as: bee stings, mental health, physical fitness, women's health, and others.

This year "Well Day" will be held on Thursday (Feb. 24) from 9 am to 5 pm. Routine health services will be limited. Students, staff and faculty are invited to drop in at the Health Center to see what is going on.
KENNEDY PRAISED FOR "FAIR" LEADERSHIP

The president of Cal Poly has been honored by the nation's largest association of fairs and expositions. Dr. Robert E. Kennedy was recognized during the recent convention of the Western Fairs Association in San Diego. He received WFA's Blue Ribbon Service Award for his contributions to the fair industry. "Not only has Dr. Kennedy brought new leaders into the agricultural management aspects of the fair," the citation said, "he has now initiated a program on fair management at Cal Poly."

While speaking to fair directors and WFA staff during the final day of the convention in San Diego, President Kennedy compared universities and fairs. "Education and communication is and will remain the main thrust of both. A fair cannot be all carnival, as a college education cannot be all intercollegiate sports," he said. Robert R. Stein, executive vice president of WFA said the award was the first voted by the association's board of directors in recent years. "We specifically wanted to recognize President Kennedy's personal contributions to the fair industry and publicly tell him of our high regard for his leadership in agricultural education," Stein concluded.

QUEEN'S PAGEANT LOOKS TO POLY ROYAL

The Queen's Pageant, first major event of Cal Poly's 1977 Poly Royal, has been scheduled for 7 pm on Tuesday (Feb. 22) in Chumash Auditorium. The purpose of the pageant is to select a junior or senior in any major, to represent the student-staged festival. Criteria used by the Poly Royal General Board, which will judge the candidates, include (but are not limited to) poise, charm, wit, intelligence.

The queen and her court will preside as official hostesses for Poly Royal, the annual event which features educational exhibits; a rodeo; an aquacade; sports events; art, fashion and flower shows; concerts; and a host of other campus wide activities. Theme for the 1977 Poly Royal, scheduled for April 22 and 23, is "Struttin' Our Stuff." One hundred thousand persons from throughout California and the Western United States are expected to attend. Admission to the Queen's Pageant will be free and the public is invited to attend.

DENSHAM'S WORKS ON VIEW

"The First 12 Years" is the theme of an exhibit of drawings, paintings, and graphics by Robert Densham presently on display in the Vestibule Gallery of the Art Department. The show which will continue through Friday (Feb. 25) will be open in the gallery in the Air Conditioning Building between 8 am and 5 pm on weekdays. Admission is free and the public is invited to view the show. "The First 12 Years" is an historic collection of Densham's work from his beginning drawing courses at California State University, Long Beach, to his professional design work in Los Angeles, and finally, to his present work as a member of Cal Poly's art faculty.

Also shown in the exhibit are the stylistic changes in his drawing, painting, and use of the graphics media, as well as the stages of his development to his present professional standing as an artist and educator. Before joining the Cal Poly faculty last fall, Densham was a designer for Graphic Arts Packaging Corporation where he was involved in package designs for such products as Almaden wines, Mattel toys, Sea and Ski skin lotions, and Rexall pharmaceuticals. A graduate of Cal State Long Beach, who has taken additional work at the Art Center College of Design, Los Angeles, Densham believes that, if a person is deeply concerned with his work and the progressive quality of making something, he will assimilate the technique of drawing.

NEA - WORK EXPERIENCE INTERNSHIP PROGRAM. The rapid growth of arts organizations, increased involvement of Americans in arts activities and the growing support of the arts by government on all levels, has enlarged the need for good administrators of arts programs. The Endowment believes that it is important that arts administrators understand the relationship between government and the arts and the operations of the National Endowment for the Arts. With this in mind, the Work Experience Internship Program was inaugurated in 1973 to bring arts administrators to the Endowment's offices in Washington, DC, to 13-week periods. The success of initial sessions resulted in expansion of the program to include three 13-week sessions a year.

Application deadline for the program session for summer 1977 is March 4, 1977. Application deadline for the program session for fall 1977 is June 27, 1977.

SELECTED FEDERAL AND NON-FEDERAL PROGRAMS AND DEADLINES:

Funds for Research and Development - Exxon Education Foundation
Deadline: March 1, 1977
Purpose: This Foundation has funds available under its Educational Research and Development program for projects that promise to lead to wide improvement in instruction, administration, or physical facilities utilization in higher education. Grants support three types of activities: Pilot Projects, Developmental Efforts; Studies.

Impact Program - Exxon Education Foundation
Deadline: March 1, 1977
Purpose: Under Impact, the Foundation will disseminate information about certain educational innovations of demonstrated merit and, insofar as its funds allow, will share the cost of implementation with institutions that wish to adopt one. A description of these programs is available in the Research Development Office, 319 Administration Building.

Employment and Training Research Small Grant Projects - Employment and Training Administration
Deadline: March 1, 1977
Purpose: To broaden and strengthen national and local manpower research and operating programs capability.

The Spencer Foundation
Deadline: March 1, 1977
Purpose: Support of disciplined studies by individual scholars or teams of scholars. Subjects: educational development of children, social and economic effects of education.

Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation
Deadline: March 1, 1977
Purpose: To promote the well-being and betterment of mankind throughout the world, through assistance and support to educational institutions.

Sumitomo Fund

NSF - PUBLIC SERVICE SCIENCE RESIDENCIES AND INTERNSHIPS PROGRAM. The NSF has set a tentative receipt deadline of May 31 for its new program of Public Service Science Residencies and Internships. Approximately 15 residencies and 20 internships will be awarded to encourage scientists and engineers to consider a wide range of alternative uses of their professional knowledge and skills in order that citizens will be better able to reach informed decisions in matters of public policy affecting their daily lives. Project activities may include research, writing, expert advice and other activities addressed to the needs of citizens, and informal educational activities for adults such as seminars, workshops, and public lectures. Proposals will be evaluated on the basis of applicant qualifications and the project's potential contributions to the public understanding of science, engineering, and technology. For further information and application materials, contact: Public Service Residencies and Internship Program, Office of Science and Society, National Science Foundation, Washington, DC, 20550.
