Golden Key Honour Society Inducts Four Cal Poly Faculty, Staff as Honorary Members

SAN LUIS OBISPO – Three Cal Poly administrators and one faculty member were named honorary members of the university’s chapter of the Golden Key International Honour Society at the group’s recent induction ceremony for new student members.

The honorary members are Harry Hellenbrand, dean of the College of Liberal Arts and a resident of Arroyo Grande; Mary Pedersen, associate dean of the College of Agriculture, San Luis Obispo; Cornel Morton, vice provost for student affairs, San Luis Obispo; and Ronda Beaman, a lecturer in the Speech Communication Department, San Luis Obispo.

“Golden Key recognizes the impact that honorary members have on our community and more specifically on student success,” said Valerie Barboza, the organization’s advisor. Golden Key student members must be at least a junior and be in the top 15 percent of their class academically. Most student members maintain a grade point average of at least 3.5.

Golden Key has chapters in Malaysia, Australia, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, South Africa and Canada, as well as the United States. For more information on Golden Key at Cal Poly, visit its Web site at http://www.calpoly.edu/~gkeyclub/ or call Barboza at 756-5877.
