COLLECTION OF HISTORICAL RECORDINGS READY FOR USE

A collection of 30-minute tape recordings by 18 retired members of the college faculty and staff who have been in a position to observe the growth and development of Cal Poly is now available in the Audio Visual Department for use by individuals or groups in connection with reunions, faculty meetings, homecoming programs, and other activities. They were developed by the campus Faculty-Staff Council with the assistance of George P. Couper, retired employee of the college and Bureau of Agricultural Education, and various members of the college faculty and staff.

Those whose remarks are included in the collection, along with their departmental connection just prior to retirement, are Carl G. Beck, Farm Management; Lyman L. Bennion, head of Animal Husbandry; James H. Carrington, Agricultural Engineering; Couper; Joseph C. Deuel, housing coordinator; George M. Drumm, head of Dairy; A. M. Fellows, head of Printing Engineering and Management; Stanton Gray, Crops; C. Elgin Knott, assistant dean of engineering; C. O. McCorkle, dean of the college, Kellogg-Voorhis campus; L. E. McFarland, chief of maintenance; M. C. Martinsen, head of Aeronautical Engineering; Ted Matthew, Physical Sciences; James F. Merson, head of Agricultural Engineering; Harry Parker, Animal Husbandry; John Perozzi, Maintenance; John Riebel, English and Speech; and Vard M. Shepard, dean of agriculture.

SALE OF TICKETS FOR 27TH HOME CONCERT BEGINS

Tickets for the 27th annual Home Concert, which is scheduled for the evening of April 19, began on campus and in downtown San Luis Obispo this week. Priced at $1.25 each for adults and $.75 for students and children, they may be purchased on campus from the more than 175 students who are members of the six groups scheduled to perform during the program as well as at the Associated Students, Inc., Office.

Performing during the concert, an annual highlight of the year's music events at Cal Poly, will be the Collegians stage and dance band, the Women's Glee Club, the Majors and Minors male vocal ensemble, the Women's Sextet, the Men's Glee Club, and the Collegiate Quartet. A broad range of musical interests is expected to be represented on the program.

EASTER OBSERVANCE CANCELS SUNDAY RECREATIONAL SWIMMING

Observance of Sunday (April 14) as Easter Sunday has caused cancellation of the normal recreational swimming at the campus Natatorium for that day. The regular schedule of times for such activity at the pool will continue after that time.
ACADEMIC MASTER PLAN, PHASE III, FINAL REPORT

The final report of the Academic Master Plan, Phase III, was sent to the Office of the Chancellor of the California State Colleges on March 27, 1968. This report covered the new degree proposals for the period up to and including the 1972-73 academic year with projections of some possible directions through 1977-78. Also included are comments on several aspects of the college.

The report has had wide access to the campus consultative processes, initiating in the instructional departments and schools, recommended by the Academic Council, and reviewed and augmented by the Faculty Sub-Council of the Faculty-Staff Council.

The sheer size of the report precludes its distribution to each faculty member. A copy is being sent to each department head. Additional copies are available for reading in the Faculty Reading Room of Dexter Memorial Library and in the Office of Academic Planning, Room 413, Administration Building. All of these copies are being provided so that interested members of the college faculty and staff may have adequate access to the report.

COLLEGE UNION BUILDING CONSTRUCTION BEGINS

Stanton-Reed Construction Company of Alhambra, the successful bidder on the Julian A. McPhee Memorial College Union Building construction project, has begun fencing the temporary parking lot between the Administration Building and the College Dining Hall as the initial step in development of the project. The fencing will virtually isolate the site, although pedestrian access to both the College Dining Hall and the Administration Building will be permitted at all times.

The contractor has advised the college that for safety and insurance reasons, unauthorized persons will not be allowed within the construction site itself throughout the entire work period. Although there will undoubtedly be some inconvenience to activities in areas adjacent to the area, the college representative in such matters expects to work with Stanton-Reed management in an attempt to insure that these inconveniences are kept to an absolute minimum.

MC CORKLE DESIGNATED "DEAN EMERITUS"

C. O. McCorkle, who retired in 1966 following more than 30 years as a member of the faculty and administrative staff of Cal Poly, has been designated "Dean Emeritus." The first individual to receive that title since the guidelines for recognition of retired and former members of the college faculty were established, he served in a variety of capacities on this campus and at the Kellogg and Voorhis campuses of Cal Poly before separation of the campuses. Just prior to his retirement he was dean of the college at Cal Poly, Kellogg-Voorhis, Pomona.

In his letter informing him of the honor, President Robert E. Kennedy called McCorkle and his wife, Avis, "valued members of the Cal Poly family." "I speak for myself and the entire staff in hoping both of you will continue active participation in the college's affairs. We value your counsel and pleasant company and look forward to enjoying both in your years of fulfillment," Dr. Kennedy concluded.

DEADLINE FOR ARTICLES APPEARING IN NEXT WEEK'S STAFF BULLETIN IS THURSDAY NOON
CHAIRMAN OF INAUGURATION COMMITTEE EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

Roy E. Anderson, chairman of the committee which was responsible for arranging the activities of the inauguration of Cal Poly President Robert E. Kennedy last week, has expressed the appreciation of members of his committee to all those who cooperated in making the events possible. The statement, issued last week by Dr. Anderson who is a member of the Business Administration Department faculty, reads:

"The Inauguration Committee wishes to extend their thanks to each member of the Campus Community for making the Inauguration of President Kennedy an outstanding success. The cooperation and dedication of the many individuals who worked so hard to make everything function smoothly is sincerely appreciated.

"To many campus organizations which participated in this important event, thank you for your assistance. The cooperative spirit which prevailed throughout the planning stages and execution of the plans was evident in the successful Inauguration Ceremonies. The fine attendance of the Faculty in the Academic Procession brought many fine comments from an appreciative audience.

"I know I speak for the entire Inauguration Committee when I say that this is an indication of what can be done when the entire College works together. Again, thank you."

NOMINEES FOR STAFF CLUB OFFICERS FOR 1968-69 LISTED

Names of eight members of the college faculty and staff who have been nominated for terms as officers of the club were presented to members of the Cal Poly Staff Club Association during the April 4 luncheon meeting of that campus organization. Selected by the club's Nomination Committee as its nominee for president during 1968-69 was Wallace Reynolds of the Mechanical Engineering Department.

Other nominees for the slate included J. Barron Wiley of the Education Department, vice president; Mrs. Anne Marcel of the Evaluations Office, secretary; and James Neelands of the School of Applied Sciences, treasurer. Nominated for terms as members of the club's Board of Directors were Donald Grant of the School of Architecture, Sharon Kerr of the Physical Education Department, Charles Dills of the Chemistry Department, and Frank Thrasher of the Crops Department.

Election of officers and board members will be held during the club's regular luncheon meeting Thursday (April 11) starting at 12:00 noon in the Staff Dining Room.

LARGE NUMBER OF STATE-WIDE FACULTY POSITIONS YET TO BE FILLED

Only one-fifth of next year's expected faculty vacancies in the California State Colleges have been filled, according to a progress report released recently. C. Mansel Keene, assistant chancellor for faculty and staff affairs for the 19-college system, said only 497 full-time academic posts have been filled out of a total of 2,469 full- and part-time expected vacancies.

Dr. Keene estimated that 703 positions will probably be filled on a part-time basis leaving 1,269 full-time faculty members, or 51.4 percent of the total, still to be hired. While this year's figures exceed last year's at this time, he noted that both years illustrate the difficulty in recruitment since at least 50 percent of the full-time vacancies should be filled by this time.
COMING EVENTS

Books at High Noon -- Tuesday, April 9, 12:00 noon, Staff Dining Room. Dr. Philip K. Overmeyer of the faculty of the Business Administration Department will review Leland F. Cooley's "Condition Pink." Public invited.

Varsity Golf -- Tuesday, April 9, 1:00 p.m., San Luis Obispo Country Club. Cal Poly vs. California State College at Fullerton. Public invited.

Art Lecture -- Tuesday, April 9, 8:00 p.m., Theater. Lecture on "British Art Today" by artist Roy Slade of the Leeds College of Art in England. Sponsored by Cal Poly. Public invited.

Cal Poly Women's Club, General Meeting -- Tuesday, April 9, 8:00 p.m., Room 129, Dexter Memorial Library. General meeting of the women's club's membership for election of officers for 1968-69 and program on the reading of palms by Mrs. Marj Johnson. Members and guests invited.

Council of California Growers -- Wednesday, April 10, all day, Cal Poly campus. Meeting of Board of Governors of the Council of California Growers followed by a tour of the college farm and demonstrations in the Dairy and Beef Pavilions. By invitation.

College Hour Concert -- Thursday, April 11, 11:00 a.m., Theater. Men's Glee Club and Collegians stage and dance band will be featured during program of the College Hour Concert series sponsored by the college Music Department. Public invited.

Defensive Driver Training -- Wednesday, April 10, and Thursday, April 11, 3:00 p.m., Room 126, Dexter Memorial Library. Training sessions required of all members of the college faculty, staff, and student body before they may operate state-owned vehicles. Attendance at either of the meetings, which will be the only ones offered this quarter, meets the requirement. Faculty, staff, and students invited.

Cal Poly Staff Club Luncheon -- Thursday, April 11, 12:00 noon, Staff Dining Room. "Gold: To Be or Not To Be" will be the title of remarks by Frank LeRoi of the Business Administration Department faculty during regular luncheon gathering of the club. Faculty, staff, and guests invited.

Varsity Baseball -- Thursday, April 11, 2:30 p.m. Cal Poly vs. California Lutheran University. Public invited.

Academic Holiday -- Friday, April 12, all day. Good Friday holiday for all students and faculty.

Chess Tournament -- Friday, April 12, 3:00 to 10:00 p.m., and Saturday, April 13, 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., Snack Bar. Intercollegiate invitational chess competition sponsored by Caissa Chess Club of Cal Poly. Public invited.

Arts and Crafts Show -- Monday, April 15, through April 25, during regular hours, foyer of Dexter Memorial Library. Exhibit of art from Oakland College of Arts and Crafts sponsored by College Union Fine Arts Committee. Public invited.

Cal Poly Women's Club, Bridge Sections -- Monday, April 15, 8:00 p.m., Room 129, Dexter Memorial Library. Regular meeting of the women's club's Bridge and Beginning Bridge Sections. Members and guests invited.

(Continued on Page 5)
COMING EVENTS (Continued from Page 4)

Cal Poly Women's Club, Walking Section -- Tuesday, April 16, 9:00 a.m., Williams Brothers Market, San Luis Obispo. Regular meeting of the club's Walking Section for walk in the Lower Higuera Street area of the city. Members and guests invited.

Books at High Noon -- Tuesday, April 16, 12:00 noon, Staff Dining Room. Review of Tom Stoppard's play, "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead," by Mrs. Barbara Ratcliffe, wife of Ronald V. Ratcliffe of the Music Department faculty, will be featured during luncheon program of the weekly series. Public invited.

Cal Poly Staff Club Luncheon -- Thursday, April 18, 12:00 noon, Staff Dining Room. "Poly Royal and How It Grew" will be the topic for remarks by Carl G. Beck, emeritus member of the Cal Poly faculty who is credited with being "the father of Poly Royal." Faculty, staff, and guests invited.

Home Concert -- Friday, April 19, 8:00 p.m., Men's Gymnasium. Twenty-seventh annual Home Concert featuring Cal Poly's Collegians stage and dance band, Men's Glee Club, Majors and Minors male vocal ensemble, Women's Glee Club, Collegiate Quartet, and Women's Sextet, sponsored by the Music Department. Tickets, $1.25 for adults, $.75 for students and children.

TEST SCORING PROGRAM USING MARK SENSE I B M CARDS ANNOUNCED

Availability on campus of a test scoring program for scoring objective examinations through the use of mark sense IBM cards has been announced by Don Arndt, manager of Automatic Data Processing Services. The new program, which provides for a maximum of 130 questions and results in a numerical grade for each student, a grade distribution for the class with both a mean and a standard deviation, and an item analysis indicating the number of different responses to each question is available for use in classes throughout the college. Faculty members wishing to use the service are invited to contact Arndt by calling 546-2470 for more detailed information.

SWIM, WENTE NAMED TO C S C BOARD

Dudley Swim of Carmel Valley and Karl L. Wente of Livermore have been appointed to eight-year terms as trustees of the California State Colleges by Governor Ronald Reagan. Chancellor of the California State Colleges Glenn S. Dumke said the two new appointees succeed retiring trustees Donald M. Hart and Gregson E. Bautzer whose terms expired March 1. Hart had been a member of the board since its inception in 1960 and served as vice chairman for two years before being named chairman last June. Bautzer had been a trustee since 1963.

Swim, a rancher, is chairman of the board of National Airlines and is a director of the Providence Washington Insurance Company. He was previously appointed to the Coordinating Council for Higher Education by the governor. The new board member is a graduate of Stanford University from which he received both the AB and MA degrees and was president of the Stanford Alumni Association from 1951 to 1952.

Wente is president of Wente Brothers' Winery in Livermore and also serves as president of Wente Farms and the Wente Land and Cattle Company. Also a graduate of Stanford from which he received his MS degree, Wente is a director of the American Automobile Association. He is also a director of the Livermore Valley Memorial Hospital, the Livermore Water District, and the Livermore Branch of the Bank of America.
BRITISH ART WILL BE LECTURE TOPIC

"British Art Today" will be the title of an illustrated lecture by the English artist Roy Slade to be given this (Tuesday, April 9) evening on campus. Sponsored by the college, the program during which Slade will speak is scheduled for the Theater beginning at 8:00 p.m. It will be presented free of an admission charge and faculty, staff, and students, as well as the public, are invited.

The British artist and teacher is presently on leave from his post as director of studies for postgraduate fine arts courses and senior lecturer in painting at Leeds College of Art in England. He is in the midst of a year-long assignment as exchange professor of painting at Corcoran School of Art in Washington, D.C., and is lecturing throughout the United States.

A native of Wales, Slade is a graduate of Cardiff College of Art. After having been a secondary school teacher, he became a lecturer in art at Clarendon College in Nottingham in 1960 and joined the faculty of the college at Leeds three years ago. As a painter, he has been exhibiting his work for many years. He has exhibited widely and his work has been purchased by a number of private and public patrons.

CSEA CHAPTER SEEKS NOMINEES FOR 1968-69 OFFICERS SLATE

Nominations for the 1968-69 slate of officers for the campus chapter of the California State Employees Association are presently being sought by members of that group's Nominating Committee. Offices to be filled include president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and five delegates to the General Council.

Members of CSEA who are interested in serving in any capacity are invited to contact Assistant Dean of Agriculture La Verne A. Bucy (546-2161), Peggy Sullivan of the Cal Poly Foundation's Food Services Office (546-2301), or George Beatie, associate dean for special programs (546-2158). Nominations will be closed during the CSEA chapter's April 17 luncheon meeting, which is scheduled for 12:00 noon in the Staff Dining Room.

FACULTY INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN BUSINESS SEMINAR

Members of the college faculty have been invited to participate in the second annual Cal Poly Business Seminar, which is scheduled for May 16-17 on campus, by Bob Larkins, a member of the student committee which is planning the event. Those interested in taking part in the seminar being sponsored by the Society for the Advancement of Management and the Technical Arts Society are invited to contact either William A. Boyce of the Business Administration Department or Kenneth A. Kimball of the Technical Arts Department.

GOOD FRIDAY ACADEMIC HOLIDAY MOVES COPY DEADLINE FOR "BULLETIN"

The academic holiday scheduled for Good Friday (April 12) has forced advancement of the deadline for receipt of copy for next week's issue of "Staff Bulletin" in the Public Information Office, Room 210, Administration Building, to 12:00 noon, Thursday (April 11). Publication date of that edition will not be affected by the change.
MAC DONALD TO HEAD INFORMATION SERVICES

Lachlan P. MacDonald, director of information services at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, effective with the beginning of the Fall Quarter. In making the announcement today (Tuesday, April 9), President Robert E. Kennedy stated that MacDonald would have charge of all press, radio, and television relations and official publications of the college.

He will succeed Douglass W. Miller who has completed plans to retire from the Cal Poly staff after 15 years with the college. MacDonald, 39, joined the college at Pomona in 1963 and has for the last two years been head of instruction in journalism, as well as information services, there. Prior to assuming those duties, he taught for six years at Webb School of California in Claremont where he also advised publications and coordinated the extracurricular program.

MacDonald holds the MA degree from University of Chicago where he was lecturer, editor of University College Publications, and editor of "Chicago Review." Following that, he spent six years in Alaska as a newsman with Radio Station KBYR, the "Anchorage Daily Times," and the Associated Press, and public relations counsel for the Alaska National Guard. MacDonald served two years in the US Army as public information specialist and also worked for City News Service of Los Angeles, and as editor of publications for the state vocational education office.

For his articles, short stories, and poetry, MacDonald has received the Olga and Paul Menn Creative Writing Prize of $1,000; grants from the University of New Hampshire, The MacDowell Colony, and the University of Utah; and publication in "Best American Short Stories of 1960." In 1961 he won the Pomona Valley Literary Prize. A state judge for the National Council of Teachers of English, he has received grants for participation in institutes and conferences of the Commission on English at University of California at Los Angeles and at University of Michigan.

MacDonald is a former editor of "Coastlines" and "L.A. Magazine" and is currently a contributing editor to the "Humanist," which is published by the American Humanist Association.

WHO . . . WHAT . . . WHEN . . . WHERE ? ? ?

Rex Hutton and Neal Townsend, both Mathematics, were among more than 850 educators who attended a meeting of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics held in Sacramento March 29-31.

Wallace Glidden, Veterinary Science, was an invited participant in the University of California Leadership and Development Conference which took place in Davis last month. Considered during the event were new approaches to curricula design and opportunities to coordinate academic programs with state colleges.

Harry Scales, Education, read a paper on keeping potential dropouts in high school during the Western Psychological Association meeting held in San Diego March 30.

Donald W. Hensel, newly-appointed associate dean, academic planning, is author of a study guide for European history courses titled "Guidebook to a History of the Western World." D. C. Heath and Company of Boston is publisher of the book which has been adopted for use in over 20 colleges and universities on the West Coast.

(Continued on Page 8)
Owen Servatius, head of Business Administration, was principal speaker during the annual Food Processing Club banquet which took place Friday (April 5) evening at the Laguna Village Inn, San Luis Obispo.

James E. Rice, Ron W. Hall, and Ron R. McAllister, all Technical Arts, attended the convention of the California Industry Education Association held last month in Ventura. More than 3,000 industrial educators from California high schools and colleges participated.

LaVerne Bucy, acting associate dean of agriculture, and Frank Fox, Animal Husbandry, were judges for home farm program competition conducted by the California Association of Future Farmers of America late in March. Dr. Bucy evaluated entries in the Monterey County Section and Fox, those in the San Luis Obispo County Section.

Roderick W. Carruthers, head of Printing Technology and Management, made career day presentations last month at Burroughs High School in Burbank, Glendale High School, and South Pasadena High School. Carruthers also studied recent developments in printing technology at two printing industry plants while in the Los Angeles area.

Sabah Al-Hadad, Jack Dixon, Curtis Gerald, Charles Haskell, George Mach, and Neal Townsend, all Mathematics, attended the 48th meeting of the Mathematical Association of America, Southern California Section, at Loyola University in Los Angeles.

Alice Roberts, Education, was a speaker during the Vancouver Teachers' Convention held in Vancouver, B.C., March 22. In addition to her presentation before the convention's General Session, Mrs. Roberts conducted two sectional meetings for kindergarten and primary teachers.

Philip Overmeyer, Business Administration, attended a two-day meeting devoted to problems in collective bargaining and organized labor and forthcoming legislation in Los Angeles recently.

J. M. McRobbie, head of Technical Arts, was a participant in the annual Conference on Industrial Education held in Santa Barbara last month. Conducted by the State Department of Education for industrial arts and trade-technical school supervisors and teacher educators, the two-day meeting placed emphasis on relating education with today's industry.

J. Cordner Gibson, acting dean of agriculture, and Howard West, acting director of international education, recently attended a Conference on the Professional School and World Affairs sponsored by the Education in World Affairs Council and hosted by the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque.

George Couper, a retired member of the college and Bureau of Agricultural Education staffs, returned to San Luis Obispo last week after an 8,000-mile trip through Mexico. He and his wife, Gladys, journeyed the entire length of that nation in their-camper pickup.

Donovan Cartwright and Edward Ernatt, both Education, attended the spring conference of the Association of California Professors of Educational Administration held March 23 in Fresno.