Chicano Scholar to Speak on UFW April 8 at Cal Poly

SAN LUIS OBISPO -- Prominent Chicano scholar and UC Santa Barbara History Professor Zaragosa Vargas will speak on the United Farm Workers union from an historical point of view at 4:10 p.m. Thursday, April 8, in Philips Hall in the Performing Arts Center on campus.

Vargas is considered a leader in examining how ethnicity, race and gender have shaped the lives of working people and their history.

The free, public presentation is sponsored by Cal Poly's Ethnic Studies Department in honor of the memory of Cesar Chavez. For more information, call the department at 756-1707.
