Kennedy interview: One to one

By TONY TRAN
Daily Staff Writer

Some know him as University President Dr. Robert S. Kennedy. Others know him simply as Bob. Some call him Kennedy at all.

Since Kennedy is probably criticized every day, for nearly everything, Mustang Daily offered him the chance to respond. He was enthusiastic, responsive and informative. Some of his answers may surprise you.

Kennedy began climbing the long ladder toward the top in 1940 when he joined the Cal Poly Journalism Department. He went from part-time to position—department head to vice president—vice president was president by the California State University and Colleges Board of Trustees in May, 1987.

Since then, Kennedy has made several decisions that have been the focus of attack from students, staff and community members alike. Some don't like his alcohol decision. Others feel he has not provided adequate housing for university students.

Three years ago, Mustang Daily Co-Editor Peter King put Kennedy in the hot seat and asked him questions about everything from his personal life to whether he thought he was dictating moral standards.

We asked different questions. We did not discuss gay students or the Brad Smith firing, believing those are no longer relevant. We asked him about his more recent policy decisions, the latest segment of his personal life and his relationships with people.

The following question and answer session took place between Mustang Daily and Kennedy in his office on Feb. 17.

"I did not make a decision to show or not show."

this time last year when the then-chairman of the AAU Films Committee invited me to see the movies before my job and how they intervene." I think it is a conflict "to be involved as a director and to be involved in the films."

It doesn’t add.

Many people think drinking adds spice to their personality. They feel it’s a way to impress others or given up a party. The fact is, that instead of being impressed, most people are turned off by this kind of drinking. Drinking too much is a loss of mind and body control, not a crutch to use to insure a good time. Reasonable drinking adds up to more fun. All we ask is that you drink responsibly.

It detracts.

Police continue hunt

The status of the Mary Jane Geshler hit-and-run case remains the same, police said Tuesday. Geshler, 5-year-oldCtl Poli analyst, was killed in a pickup truck on California Boulevard on Feb. 13, in an apparent hit-and-run accident. Authorities indicate the truck may have been involved in a hit-and-run accident, and that the suspect responsible for the death was possibly involved in an accident.

The police have released more than the 150 potential suspects, and have not received any information from the public about the accident.

The police have confirmed that the suspect responsible for the death is a 5-year-old boy, who was last seen with his family at a restaurant in the area.

The case remains active, and the police continue to investigate the circumstances surrounding the accident.

TIRED OF THE SAME OLD THING?

BY JOHN KELLER

Radio's Bobbie Kal, a 6-4 star who was last seen in the broadcast booth, is ready to come out of retirement.

He has signed with the Los Angeles Lakers for the upcoming season. Kal, who played collegiately at UCLA, will bring his experience and knowledge of the game to the court.

Kal, 32, played for the Lakers from 1972 to 1976 and was a key member of the team that won three NBA championships. He was named the NBA's Most Valuable Player in 1975.

Kal said he is looking forward to playing with his old teammates again and hopes to help the Lakers return to the playoffs.

He added, "I'm excited to be back on the court. I missed playing with my friends and teammates. It will be great to be back with them and the fans.

"I'm ready to put in the work and get back on the court. I'm looking forward to helping the Lakers have a successful season."

Fading hopes for a championship

Just as reassuring as an answer, the following question, "Can we ever have another hope?" is one that all Hopeites ask. It's true that Hope has made great strides in recent years, but things are not always as they appear at first glance.

If, however, history is any guide, then 1978 is likely to be the year of the Hopeite. The city has been building a strong athletic program for the past few years, and the future looks bright.

George Washington University, a new college in the mid-Atlantic area, is one of the major players in this area. The university has been able to attract some top notches from other schools, and they are looking forward to a successful season.

John Smith, a senior at George Washington, was named to the All-Conference team last year. He led the team in scoring and was named the Most Valuable Player. Smith is expected to lead the team in scoring this year as well.

Arthur Harris, a junior at the university, is another key player for the team. He is a strong rebounder who can also shoot the ball well.

The university has also been able to attract some key transfers from other schools. These players will add depth to the team and help it to compete at a high level.
