Cal Poly MultiCultural Center to Host All Open-Mic Poetry Event Nov. 2

SAN LUIS OBISPO – The Cal Poly MultiCultural Center will host Another Type of Groove: Spoken Word Poetry at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 2 in Chumash Auditorium located in the University Union on campus.

This event will be an all open-mic, during which community members, students and faculty can share their poems on the same stage.

Another Type of Groove is held the first Wednesday of each month throughout the school year. This event is free and open to the public.

The MultiCultural Center cultivates a campuswide community that represents and celebrates the diversity of Cal Poly's student body. The center fosters a sense of belonging while empowering students to grow beyond their personal barriers, strengthen their understanding of diversity and social responsibility, and develop leadership skills. Through cross-cultural dialogues and examining the issues relevant to diversity and social justice, the center aims to nurture a generation of ethical and knowledgeable leaders who contribute to a global society.

For more information, contact Megan McIntyre at 805-756-1405 or mcc@calpoly.edu, or visit the MultiCultural Center Web site at http://multicultural.calpoly.edu.

###